Sermon - Biblical Worship

Psalm 95

Worship _____ the _____ of another.

Do you know which book of the Bible has the most to say about worship?

*Oh come, let us sing to the LORD;
let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!
Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!
For the LORD is a great God,
and a great King above all gods.
In his hand are the depths of the earth;
the heights of the mountains are his also.
The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands formed the dry land.
Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!
For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep of his hand. (Psalm 95:1-7, ESV.)*

“Biblical worship is the activity of glorifying God in his presence with our voices and hearts.” - Wayne Grudem

AT HOME THIS WEEK

Read Psalm 95:1-7 and take note of what you observe.

How can you apply this passage to personal and collective worship? What are other passages in the Bible that speak to personal and collective worship?

How can worship shape our prayer life? Use Psalm 95 to shape a prayer of worship to God.

Join us Wednesday at 6:00 pm to discuss the application of today's message at Family Night.
