BEING THE CHURCH IN THE COMMUNITY
LESSONS FROM 1 TIMOTHY

Gospel Centered Care for the Pastor

October 29, 2023 | 1 Timothy 5:17-25

Double honor means _____ and
_____.

Double honor is only for those who do their work
_____.

Don't be surprised when someone _____
the pastor.

Don't _____ to that accusation unless it is confirmed by multiple people.

Calling out sin in another is never meant to _____ him, but to _____ others in the church.

Some sins are _____, others are _____.

Some good works are _____, others are _____.

Meet Lacey Conner

Our Kids Ministry Director
Candidate

Members, please be sure to pick up your ballot at the Welcome Desk this morning.

I have lived in Scottsville my entire life. My background is in elementary and early childhood education. I graduated from WKU. I have worked in the classroom setting for the last 20 years. I began attending White Plains around the age of eight with my family and have grown up here. I began working in the Children's Ministry by teaching the Preschool Sunday School class my Senior year of high school and helping my mother when she was Children's Director. I continued teaching that class for many years. I have also served in other Children's Ministry programs such as AWANA by teaching the preschool and elementary age classes on Sunday and Wednesday nights, volunteering in the nursery, and assisting with the children's Christmas plays. I was active in our county's Relay for Life. I am also actively involved with the local Chrysalis and Emmaus community. I have enjoyed attending and serving White Plain for many years and look forward to this new opportunity to serve the children of White Plains.
