Love - to serve a person for their good and intrinsic value, not for what the person brings you.

Joy - a delight in God for the sheer beauty and worth of who He is.

Peace - a confidence and rest in the wisdom and control of God, rather than in your own.

Patience - an ability to face trouble without blowing up or hitting out.

Kindness - an ability to serve others practically in a way which makes you vulnerable. This comes from having a deep inner security.

Goodness - being the same person in every situation, rather than a phony or a hypocrite.

Faithfulness - to be utterly reliable and true to your word.

Gentleness - the opposite is to be superior or self-absorbed.

Self-Control - the ability to pursue the important over the urgent, rather than to be always impulse or uncontrolled.

Timothy Keller, Galatians for You, God's Word for You (Purcellville, VA: The Good Book Company, 2013), 153–155.
